

Case10

35 years male, highly educated, working

1-Does not have too many contents and actually resisted to draw and on the other hand, it shows the uncertainty from point of my view.

2- Continuation of the first drawing, which includes uncertainty yet, wanting move forward in life, anger is shown by finger sign, then again, narrowing conflicts zone at the same time. Also is pointing advancing in life with anger, and matter of fact the anger is motivation element in this case.

The second drawing was the starting point of process of progressing.
