

Case16

A female client drew her doubts in regard to her life in the left side, in which as she described "doubt about the self, about her sexual life, about her partner, about her anger and love towards her dad, her anger about her mom for not being able to protect her, about separation, about her fear of independency".

In the right side as she described, "the desirable life, understanding of the self and the desirable attitude and satisfied with the self through the time, place and space.

Wanting a warm house and peaceful life as she described.