

Case2

Left to Right

As the person described own perception of these drawing according to own desire, wishes, needs and wants. Through these drawings person was able to identify and recognize those four important elements of own life. 1-Desire to integrate self within Nature and social environment. 2- feeling good and hopeful for future. 3- Find desired goal, future house and relax environment. 4-In this drawing client is recognizing own identity, in which the first drawing is imagined one and the second is the one client is realizing as true one