

Case7

This drawing done by a 9 years old female. I interviewed her and her parents for intake session. I asked from her if she wants draw me whatever she wanted to draw. She drew this colorful drawing. This drawing is giving the message that although she has everything as a child that she could wish for it yet, the feeling and sense of loneliness shown and expressing by having herself isolated and stuck without being able to reach outside.